PRESS RELEASE

Establishing the De Facto Standard in the Japanese M&A Industry-Toward becoming a World-Class Investment Bank

Since its founding, MACP has remained committed to its core philosophy of “maximizing client value.” Guided by this principle, the company has consistently prioritized close client relationships and responded to each client’s decision with sincerity and dedication.

MACP has pioneered a client-first approach to M&A by adopting a unique fee structure since its inception — no upfront fees and a Lehman formula based on the same valuation for both buyers and sellers, ensuring transparency and fairness in every transaction.

As the only dedicated M&A brokerage firm ranked in the M&A market league tables and holding the No.1 position for consecutive years since 2023, MACP continues to lead the industry in promoting fair and secure M&A practices. As a model of industry integrity, MACP is committed to fostering healthy market development and working toward its vision of becoming a world-class investment bank.

In the Japan M&A Review – Financial Advisor League Tables (First Half of 2025), according to LSEG (London Stock Exchange Group) data, MACP secured No.1 rankings by number of transactions in the following three categories, achieving a Triple Crown for the second consecutive year:
